

Aquatic Death & Homicidal Drowning Investigation

Methods of Best Practice for Investigating Deaths in Water

Date: March 14-16, 2017

Place: Arcadia University
Easton Road, Glenside, PA

Price: $380

Instructor: Andrea Zaferes

Course Topics Include:

- Manner of death problems
- Drowned or dumped?
- Drowning myths
- Role of law enforcement and medical examiners
- Different types of water-related deaths
  - Accidents – open water, tub, pool, boat, vehicle, aircraft, and other
  - Suicides – different types
  - Natural – long QT syndrome, cardiac, and other
  - Homicide – aquatic sexual sadism, aquatic eroticism, infanticide, abuse-related, open water, tub, pool, boat, vehicle, and other
  - Homicides staged as accidental drowning
  - Homicidal drowning staged as natural, accidental or suicidal deaths.
- Deputy coroner scene investigation
- What to document and ask about
- Water incident witness interviewing
- The autopsy
- Case histories

Who should take this course?

- Homicide Investigators
- Police Detectives
- Private Investigators
- Medical Examiners
- Dive & Recovery Teams
- Crime Scene Investigators

Andrea, Zaferes, Vice President of Lifeguard Systems and RIPTIDE, a NAUI & ACUC course director, and a PADI, DAN, and Red Cross Instructor, teaches approximately 1000 surface rescue and dive personnel annually.

Course content provided by:

 lifeguard Systems

Teamlgs.com

Register by March 1, 2017 at: adhdi2017.eventbrite.com