LGS Weight Unit

(Harness not included)

Retail: $125 each

Sale Price: $108 each

Weight should be removed first, before any other piece of equipment to train divers to survive a surface problem. If you do not remove your weights first on every dive, then the chances of you being able to when you are struggling on the surface are even less than the chances of you thinking about dropping your weights.

Most accidents begin on the surface. 92-94% of dead divers are found on the bottom wearing their weight belts. Ask yourself why. Never forget, better lead than dead. Train your brain and your hands to ditch that belt the first time you think about it. • LGS weight unit is easily secured to the LGS Diver harness with 4 attachment points (Fastex Buckles). • Divers can walk around with just the harness on, then quickly don the weight system just prior to diving. • Two rapid quick-release front pockets carry up to 15 lbs. each. • Two rear trim pockets can hold an additional 15 lbs. • Soft weight recommended. • When weights released, they remain in pockets, allowing divers to easily ditch their weights every time prior to exiting water. • Large weight release T-bar tabs for thick-gloved hands, and no snag hazards.

Swiftwater Rescue

Retail: $28ea

Sale Price: $25 each

Swiftwater Rescue 2nd Edition offers an in-depth look at Swiftwater rescue for the professional -- firefighters, park rangers, law enforcement, EMS personnel -- as well as anyone who might be faced with the possibility of a flood or Swiftwater rescue. Topics include rescuer safety considerations and equipment; river hydrology; equipment; shore-based, boat-based, and in-water rescue techniques; medical considerations; rigging for river rescue; incident command, animal rescue, and Swiftwater training. Densely illustrated with line drawings and black & white photographs, the second edition also covers advanced subjects like the use of helicopters in Swiftwater rescue and special situations like low-head dams, urban flooding, and flood channel rescues.

Magnum 2 Dive Mask

Retail: $27 ea.

Sale Price: $24 each

The Sherwood Magnum 2-Window Mask has been serving the diving community for many years. The Magnum's track record will assure that it will continue to serve the industry for many more. How can a mask be so reliable? Comfort and fit make this one of the most widely accepted masks today. The two-window tempered glass design creates a low volume mask with optional corrective lenses. Mask is equipped with an easy to reach one-hand nose pocket for ear equalization which can be utilized even when wearing thick gloves. Mask has a double feathered edge silicone rubber skirt and wide split style silicone rubber mask strap that combined to create a perfect seal on the face. Adjustment of the strap is made easy with and Sherwood's unique Virtual Pivot Point (VPP) buckles system.

Turtle Fins Sixe 3XL

Retail: $100 ea.

Sale Price: $90 each

This is the original Scuba fin, with a tried and true design that has maintained its popularity. This fin is the sole choice of many combat and tactical units worldwide. The unique rubber compound allows you to achieve greater efficiency by reducing the overall weight and adding a snap back quality. The Turtle Fins all rubber construction with standard like-they-used-to-make-them metal buckles. The vented blade design allows water to flow-through the vents on the weaker down stroke of fining, reducing pressure and providing less strain on the leg. When fining in the up stroke, due to the angle of the vent, the fin reacts as a solid blade for maximum power and propulsion.
